

Come Home to the Wisdom Within You

Journey Home to Soul is a sanctuary for your authentic self. It is a living body of work devoted to guiding you back to who you are beneath the conditioning, and supporting you to live from that place with courage, clarity, and love.

My philosophy is deeply respectful of your autonomy. I am not here to prescribe solutions, but to empower you to trust your own wisdom.

The Foundation: 4 Pillars & 8 Stages

Everything here is grounded in a unique framework to make your journey coherent, embodied, and real.

- The Four Pillars of SELF: Surrender, Evolution, Love, and Feeling.
- The Eight Stages of Remembrance: A guided pathway that weaves through every offering, helping you navigate the spiral of returning to your soul essence.

Deep Transformation & Sacred Support

For when you are ready to dive deep, clear the noise, and re-weave your path.

Soul Weaving Mentoring (1:1)

A sacred pause at life's crossroads.

This is not traditional coaching. It is an intuitive, soul-led journey of remembrance where you are held, seen, and gently guided back to your own inner knowing. Together we honour what has shaped you, release what no longer fits, and reweave your path with clarity and soul truth.

International Women's Retreats (Bali)

Immersive Reclamation.

Step out of the noise and into sacred space. Through the Dragonfly Journey and Alchemy of the Heart retreats, I create a container of deep rest, ritual, and connection. You will be held with tenderness as you release what weighs you down and reclaim what is yours.

Civil & Spiritual Celebrant

Rites of Passage with Reverence.

Whether you are celebrating love, naming a child, or honouring a farewell, I create bespoke ceremonies that are artful, inclusive, and deeply true to you. We weave in ritual elements that honour your story, ensuring your moment feels sacred and authentic.

I also offer a wide range of spiritual ceremonies for a variety of purposes. Bespoke rituals for you.

The Soul Map: Personal Energy Blueprint

A Mirror for Your Soul.

When you stand before your Soul Map, you are not just looking at art — you are standing in the presence of your own frequency.

This is a personal energy blueprint — a one-of-a-kind channelled artwork created just for you. Every line, shape, and colour arrives in exact order under the guidance of Spirit to hold the truth of who you are and call you to remember.

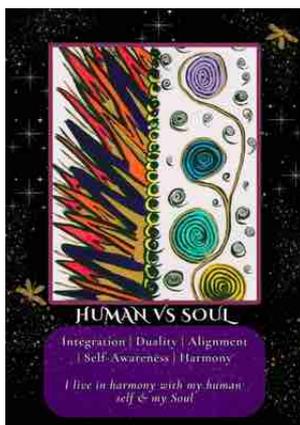

The Soul Map is more than a finished artwork; it is a living process. From the moment you say yes, a portal of activation opens. The golden sigils and light language work consciously and subconsciously to awaken your gifts, align you with your path, and deepen your connection to your authentic self.

Your Soul Map is:

- A reflection of your energy field and consciousness.
- A visual tool for personal growth and transformation.
- A living artwork that evolves with you as your awareness expands.
- A constant activation of your gifts, purpose, and potential.
