

POCKET HEARTS

Do you want to help your child feel more calm, confident and happy? Do you want to provide them with the support they need to overcome anxiety, stress, and other emotional challenges?

Our calming crystals are designed by kids, for kids.

Used by children across Australia to:

- Reduce anxiety: Safely and discreetly clip the crystal inside your child's pocket – the hand carved groove provides a sense of security to help your child cope with stress and anxiety and feel more relaxed and peaceful throughout the day.
- Provide comfort: Our crystals are like a hug from you to your child. They can help your child feel less lonely or scared when they are away from you and acts as a reminder that you are always with them, and that they are loved and safe.
- Regulate emotions: Use Pocket Hearts to connect with and guide your child's feelings. They can help your child understand and manage their emotions and feel more confident in what they do. Each crystal has its own unique properties and sentimental value, making it the perfect gift for your child.
- Boost confidence: Our crystals are like a cheerleader for your child. Each Pocket Heart has its own superpower that will help your child believe in themselves and their abilities, feeling more positive and optimistic in what they do.
- Promote well-being: Pocket Hearts will be your child's magical best friend. They can help your child enjoy life and have fun whilst feeling more balanced and mindful. They can accompany your child wherever they go, providing comfort and support when they need it most.

Unleash your child's inner superpower and help them shine!
