

WE DON'T JUST SELL ESSENTIAL OILS. WE GROW THEM.

Since 2004, our family has been growing, harvesting and distilling certified organic essential oils on our farms in South Africa.

When we do not grow an oil ourselves, we source directly from trusted partners - giving us a genuine connection to the people, plants and places behind every bottle.

This is our Farm-to-Shelf philosophy: greater traceability, closer quality control and authentic provenance you can trust.

ORGANIC AROMATHERAPY

GROWN • HARVESTED • DISTILLED • BOTTLED

CERTIFIED ORGANIC - PURE - ETHICAL FROM FARM TO SHELF.

WHY CHOOSE SOiL?

Built on over 20 years of certified organic expertise, SOiL has grown from producing premium essential oils into a complete natural wellness collection. Every product is crafted with the same commitment to purity, sustainability and authentic plant-based wellness.

From Soil to SOiL, From Farm to Shelf – this is wellness, done with intention.

TRUE FARM-TO-SHELF

We grow, harvest and distil many of our own essential oils. For those we don't grow ourselves, we work directly with trusted partners around the world maintaining the same commitment to quality, traceability and authenticity.

CERTIFIED ORGANIC INTEGRITY

Certified organic isn't just a claim, it's our standard. We are committed to offering a genuinely certified organic essential oil range, with complete transparency whenever an exception exists.

FULL TRACEABILITY

Organic certification demands documented traceability throughout the entire supply chain. From the farm where the botanicals are grown to the finished bottle, every step is carefully monitored, giving you complete confidence in the purity and provenance of our essential oils.

FAMILY-OWNED SINCE 2004

An independent family business built on sustainable farming, ethical sourcing, long-term relationships and uncompromising quality.

EXCEPTIONAL VALUE

Growing and sourcing directly reduces unnecessary intermediaries, helping us offer premium organic aromatherapy at accessible prices.
