

Our Story

Our Beginning

After decades in the corporate world, our journeys crossed in a moment of pause. From a shared desire to heal and live purposefully, Sapoi was born. Sacred Chai is more than a drink, it's a ritual of stillness and connection, reminding us of what truly matters: body, mind, and spirit.

Our Purpose

Sapoi isn't just chai. It's a reminder to pause, reconnect and savour life. Every blend is made with natural ingredients, honouring tradition and infused with intention.

This really should be a seven star product!"

"A truly enchanting blend, the Heart Opening with Rose Petal chai from Sapoi is a sensory delight. From the moment you open the pouch, the delicate aroma of rose petals mingled with warm spices invites you in like a gentle embrace. Upon brewing, the tea releases a beautifully balanced flavour—floral yet grounded, subtly sweet with a soft, spicy depth. it's a soulful experience in a cup, perfect for morning quiet moments."

"I recently treated myself to Sapoi's Sacred four Energy Ritual Set, and it's been an absolute delight—especially the Awakening Energy blend with its vibrant citrus twist while others are patiently waiting their turn!!

The ritual- ready packaging, clear brewing steps, a little ritual gift made it feel like a lovingly curated moment of self care.

If you're into sticky chai rituals that nourish both body and spirit, this set is a beautiful, intentional treat."
