The Rose Quartz Luna Pleasure Wand

Aphrodisiac Sex Spray

“ This wand cradles against all the right spots and at the perfect angle. K.R. (verified buyer)

Pleasure Wands

Self-pleasuring with crystal or glass is a deeply nurturing experience when coupled with intention and slow, embodied movement.

These tools can support you in two ways: to release stagnant or heavy energy, and to amplify the desires you wish to call in.

Pleasure wands can be used for vaginal de-armouring, which is a process of releasing internal tension and numbness.

They can also be used for self pleasure, sexual healing, and re-learning how to climax internally.

The Yoni Egg

Yoni Eggs

A Yoni Egg is an egg-shaped weight resistance that you wear inside your vagina for 15 - 30 minutes a day to tone the pelvic floor muscles, which helps with bladder control, lubrication, libido and postpartum recovery.

Benefits:

- Strengthen pelvic floor
- May improve bladder weakness
- Enhance natural lubrication & sensitivity
- Boost arousal & orgasmic potential
- Gentle sexual healing with crystal energy

The Ecko Adjustable Cock Ring Vibrator

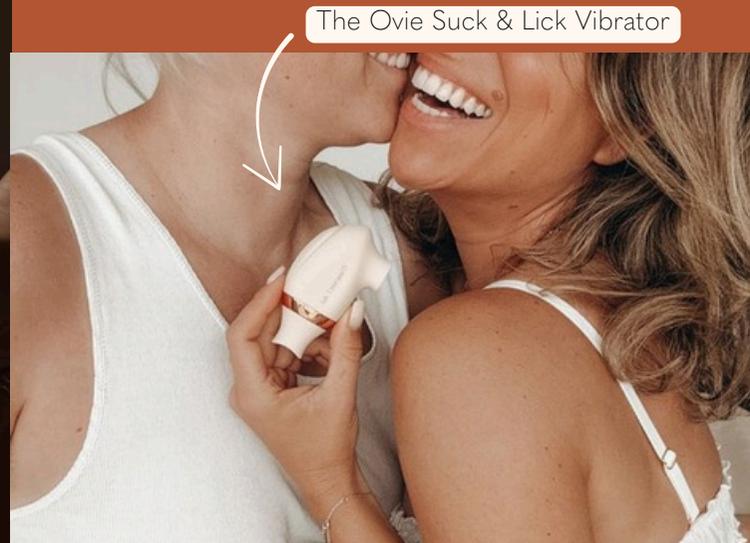

Vibrators

Our vibrators are sculptural tools of pleasure, connection, and self-discovery.

Crafted from medical-grade silicone, each piece is designed to awaken the senses and guide you deeper into your body's rhythm.

For vagina and penis owners alike, they offer more than vibration. They invite you to soften into pleasure, explore new sensations, deepen intimacy, and discover releases that ripple through the whole body.

Perfect for solo or partnered play.
